

ANTITRUST

Reference in Antitrust practice, advising on major market investigations

At the center of the most relevant and complex antitrust cases in Brazil, TozziniFreire is a leading firm in the Antitrust practice in the Brazilian market. With a highly-skilled team of six partners and more than 25 professionals dedicated exclusively to antitrust matters, we are recognized for our technical, strategic, and results-oriented approach across all aspects of antitrust.

With a significant volume of corporate investigations, agreements, administrative proceedings, and mergers, many of them highly complex and high-profile, our team has established itself as one of the largest and most active in the sector in Brazil. We advise clients on multi-jurisdictional matters, both in coordinating partners in Latin America and in providing qualified dialogue with leading firms in the United States, Europe, and Asia.

Our Antitrust practice is part of the Regulatory Group, pioneered by TozziniFreire to offer clients an integrated approach. This is a comprehensive (full-service) approach that cohesively and to the highest standards articulates the areas of Antitrust, Compliance and White-Collar Crimes, Administrative Law and Government Projects, Government Relations, and International Trade.
